Policy for Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

2017 - 2018

'Inspiring Confident Learners, Reflecting Christian Values'

This policy is in line with the Code of Practice 2014

School's Aims and Values Statement

Professionals who work with the fifth of children and young people who have a special educational need should strive to enable them to achieve at school and college, and make a successful transition to adulthood, including finding paid work, living independently and participating in their community.

(Vision statement, SEND Code of Practice 2015)

Objectives of the policy

- To work within the guidelines set out in the SEND Code of Practice, 2015.
- To ensure there is a whole school approach to any child who has a special educational need and/or disability.
- To ensure that all staff recognise each child as an individual, ensuring that all children's achievements and contributions are valued and celebrated by staff, children and parents/carers.
- To ensure all children are given an equal opportunity to take part in all learning opportunities offered by the school.
- To provide a broad and balanced curriculum while emphasising the need to develop literacy, numeracy and basic key skills.
- To provide a differentiated curriculum to ensure positive learning opportunities for all children.
- To follow school procedures that ensure early identification of children who need support that is 'additional to' or 'different from' a normal differentiated curriculum.
- To follow school procedures that ensures a graduated response, of 'assess, plan, do, review', in order to provide the correct level of support, whatever the level of need. In this way all school policies will be anticipatory in nature so that the school is ready to admit pupils with a range of needs.
- To provide specific intervention programmes and SMART Targets through individual programmes of support, delivered with fidelity, using a pre and post assessment process consistently to measure progress.
- To continue to develop and maintain positive relationships with parent/carers, using a 'Learning Conversation' approach to sharing individual programmes of support.
- To be part of an effective multi-agency network in order to combine services around the needs of the children and their families.

- Teaching and learning will be sensitive to and adapted to suit the needs of learners and recognise different routes to achievement
- Early and accurate identification of learners is essential
- There will be a flexible continuum of provision for pupils with SEND
- All staff will be given appropriate training to allow them to meet a wide range of needs
- Parents will be fully involved as partners in their child's education
- Pupils will be proactively encouraged to give their views on what learning is like for them

- SEND and high needs funding will be used efficiently to ensure good progress of pupils with additional needs

Principles

At Filey CE Nursery and Infants Academy there is a continuous cycle of planning, teaching and assessment, which takes account of the wide range of abilities of all children. In order to help children who have special educational needs and/or disabilities and for supporting children who are looked after by the local authority, the school will adopt a graduated response that recognises a continuum of need in accordance with the DFES Code of Practice, 2015 (CoP, 2015).

A child is defined as having Special Educational Needs (SEN) if they have a learning difficulty which calls for special educational provision to be made or if he or she finds it much harder to learn than children of the same age.

A learning difficulty means that the child either:

- a) has significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children of the same age
  - b) has a disability, which either prevents or hinders the child from making use of the educational facilities which are provided for children of the same age in a mainstream school
- Special educational provision means educational provision, which is additional to, or different from, the provision made generally for children of the same age in a mainstream school.

(CoP, 2015)

Evidence suggests that approximately 75% of disabled children also have a special educational need and these pupils are also protected by the Equalities Act 2010.

Mainstream educational settings must use their best endeavours to secure the special educational provision called for by the child's or young person's needs.

Procedures

The Headteacher has the overall responsibility for the provision and progress of learners with SEND. Mrs Julie George is the school's SENCo and holds responsibility for coordination of inclusion and SEN provision and for overseeing the arrangements for coordinating inclusion and SEN provision. She holds the National Award for SEN (NASENCo award) and has received specific training in order to make a referral for Statutory Assessment (Education Health Care Plan [EHC Plan]).

The SENCo ensures that regular communication takes place between class teachers, teaching assistants, parents and pupils. She also ensures that all staff have appropriate access to information about children with SEND. The SENCo will offer advice on differentiation and strategies for meeting individual pupils' needs and in preparing differentiated materials.

The SENCo will, when required, liaise with outside agencies to ensure LA specialised services are fully utilised. The school has established excellent working relationships with professionals from a range of agencies, including; Educational Psychologists, the School Nurse and Health Visitors, Educational Social Workers, Sensory, Physical and Medical Teaching Team, Speech and Language Therapists, Physiotherapists, Occupational Therapists, Paediatricians, EMS schools, SSA – Specialist Support for Autism Outreach Service. The majority of these agencies are now part of the Inclusive Education Service. The SENCo is responsible for maintaining an Additional Education Provision overview which is reviewed termly. The progress and attainment of all children is carefully monitored and reported to parents. If a child is provided with additional and different provision, we carefully monitor the impact of all interventions and whether they have a strong evidence base of effectiveness.

Whole school approaches:

- All staff contribute to the completion of whole school provision maps and ensure that strategies are implemented to ensure Quality First Teaching for all
