

Share your old books with children in Ukraine

The School Council are collecting books for children in Ukraine.

A group of Ukrainian and British volunteers are collecting used English children's books for Ukrainian schools. Your books will help these children learn English and take them to the beautiful world of fairy tales and stories.

Please bring any old unwanted books to the school hall between 8.35am and 9.00am on

- Wednesday 22nd March
- Friday 24th March

Thank you for your support!
